Since my telephone conversation with you this morning, I find that the manufacturer will deliver the shelf filing equipment to your office during the week of 4 September. Will you notify me when it is received so that I can arrange for  my Staff to come out to help with the installation.

In the meantime we will send the file folders to you and they should arrive the week of 14 August.

I regret this delay but as I explained this morning, it is unavoidable.

Sincerely,
